

Copyright Transfer Agreement

The signed agreement ensures that ENRI has the author's permission to publish the relevant work. The signed agreement entitles ENRI to publish, republish, transmit, sell, distribute and otherwise use the paper and the material contained therein in electronic and print editions of ENRI publication and in derivative work throughout the world, in all languages and in all media of expression now known or later developed, and to licence or permit others to do so.

Author(s) (hereafter referred to as the author):

Title of Paper:

1. The author hereby assigns to ENRI the copyright to the paper whereby ENRI shall have the exclusive right to publish the said contribution and translations of it wholly or in part throughout the world during the full term of copyright including renewals and extensions.
2. The author guarantees that the work is original, has not been published previously, is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, and that any necessary permission to quote from another source has been obtained.
3. In the event the above work is not accepted and published by ENRI or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by ENRI, the foregoing copyright transfer shall be null and void.

Corresponding Author signs for and accepts responsibility for releasing this material on behalf of any and all Co-Authors.
